CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY POLICY

1. Introduction

The concept of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) has been developing since early 1970's in India. Philanthropy and CSR is not a novel concept for Indian Companies. Even before the introduction of any statutory guidelines, some of the Companies were discharging their Corporate Social Responsibilities by engaging themselves in socio economic and other philanthropic activities like promoting education, contributing to the social benefits in the situations of natural calamities and health of the common people by organizing health camps. With the enactment of Companies Act 2013, the mandate for corporate service responsibility has been formally introduced to Indian Companies. The CSR mandate is an attempt to supplement the government efforts of equitably delivering the benefits of the growth and to engage the corporate world with the Country's development agenda.

Though there is no specific commonly applicable definition of CSR, it is the "continuous commitment by the business to behave ethically and contribute to economic development while improving the quality of life of work force and their families as well as local community and society". It is the responsibility of the corporate entity toward the society in consideration of the support given and sacrifice made by the society. CSR is the concept where by organizations serve the interest of the society by taking the responsibility for the impact of their activities on customers, employees, shareholders, communities, environment in all aspects of their operation.

The CSR policy of PMEA Solar Tech Solutions Limited ('Company') (CSR Policy) is broadly based on the principles of National voluntary guidelines on social, environmental and economic responsibilities of business released by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, SEBI guidelines on Business Responsibility Reporting, Companies Act.
